

Creating assets for GTM and sales teams to accelerate revenue

Sales enablement materials we created for commercialising Microsoft's approach to AI: Strategy roadmap deck, value-oriented use cases for business leaders, blog posts and pitch decks.

Developing customer stories as a central element of Microsoft's strategy to illustrate superior business value and agility that can be achieved with Azure as their cloud solution (here with DocuSign as one of the leading e-signature and intelligent agreement firms).

In today's fast-paced business landscape, agility isn't just an advantage—it's a necessity. When it comes to agreement management, outdated processes hinder progress, costing the global economy an astonishing $2 trillion¹ annually. Cumbersome, resource-intensive methods lead to significant operational bottlenecks and error-prone manual processes, resulting in lost time, increased costs, and diminished effectiveness.
